A Sandy Hook Initiative
Co-Founder

Dr. Melissa A. Reeves

The WCPA is pleased to announce that this Conference is being provided in partnership with the Wisconsin Dept. of Justice and Attorney General's Office with the mission to provide both Law Enforcement Executives and School District Officials with the training needed to help them better protect their schools through crisis prevention, response and recovery.

On Monday, August 6th the Conference will feature a special, all-day "School Safety Best Practices, Reunification at Sandy Hook: Reuniting Families in the Aftermath of a School Crisis" presentation provided by Michele Gay and Dr. Melissa A. Reeves representatives of the organization "Safe & Sound Schools: A Sandy Hook Initiative." Since its inception in the wake of the Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting tragedy "Safe & Sound Schools" has grown; and its resolve is continually being strengthened through the support of school communities, school safety experts, mental health, fire and law enforcement professionals across the country. To learn more about "Safe & Sound Schools" and access life-saving resources, please visit: <https://www.safeandsoundschools.org/>.

On Tuesday, August 7th the Conference will feature a half-day of presentations relating to school safety and protection as follows:

- "Safe Schools Legislation & New Department of Justice School Safety Coordinator Update" presented by WI Attorney General Brad Schimel (invited)
- "Legal Updates for Chiefs & School District Officials with Discussion Panel" presented by Attorney Kyle Guyla (von Briesen & Roper S.C.) & WCPA Representatives
- "New School Safety Mapping Technology" presented by Collaborative Response Graphics (CRG)

NOTE: The training presentations for the remainder of Tuesday and on Wednesday, August 8th are for Law Enforcement Executives ONLY.

Our schools are best protected when local Law Enforcement and School District Officials work together. Therefore, we are requesting our Members to please share this information with their local School District Officials right away, so they can register and join us for this event.

The registration fee for School District Officials to attend Monday's all-day presentation and the half-day of presentations on Tuesday is $125.00/person and includes lunch and refreshments served during breaks in the Conference Exhibition Hall. School District Official attendees are also welcomed to attend the "Host Chiefs Night" event scheduled for Monday evening.

The "Host Chiefs Night" event will be hosted at Lambeau Field's Johnsonville Tailgate Village (complimentary shuttle bus transportation provided). In addition to complimentary food and beverages "Host Chiefs Night" attendees will be provided with exclusive access to the Pro-Shop and free access to the Green Bay Packer's Hall of Fame exhibit (a $15.00 value) located within Lambeau Field's atrium.
