2018 WPLF MID-WINTER TRAINING CONFERENCE 5th ANNUAL NON-DENOMINATIONAL PRAYER BREAKFAST

Tuesday, February 13th 6:45am – 7:45am
Kalahari Resort & Conference Center Tamboti-Marula Rooms

The Wisconsin Police Leadership Foundation (WPLF) cordially invites you to fellowship with us at our 5th Annual Non-Denominational Prayer Breakfast.

In addition to a Scripture reading of Joshua 1:9 and prayers, this year's event will feature a heart-felt presentation by Michele Gay about being strong and courageous and special musical performances by Nathan A. Boyd.

Michele Gay is a mother, former teacher, and co-founder of Safe and Sound Schools: A Sandy Hook Initiative. After losing her daughter, Josephine Grace, on December 14, 2012, she chose to take action as an advocate for improved school security and safety in our nation's schools. Michele's background as a teacher and involved parent, along with her personal loss and post-tragedy perspective, uniquely positioned her to help school communities prevent tragedy, and better prepare and respond in the event of an emergency in their own schools. Michele is dedicated to honoring Josephine in her work to make schools in our country more safe and secure.

Nathan A. Boyd is the Director of Product Integrity for Harley-Davidson Motor Company who is also highly involved in various music ministries. He is a "surrogate" Worship Leader, meaning he leads worship at various churches when paid staff are not available. Nathan currently does this volunteer work at four different churches in the metro Milwaukee area and can be found leading worship at those churches about three weekends a month. Additionally, Nathan and his son lead the Crossing Rock Worship Band for Wednesday night youth meetings at their home church, CrossWay, in Germantown.
