

Ad for Police Chief Position

CHIEF OF POLICE. Baraboo, Wisconsin. Mayor/Council/Administrator form of government with an elected Police and Fire Commission (PFC). Prosperous growing community located 40 miles north of Madison and 8 miles south of Wisconsin Dells. Go to www.cityofbaraboo.com for community information, full job description, and application. Current Police Department has 27 sworn officers, 6 civilians, and a budget of $2.8M+. The Police Chief reports to the Mayor and the PFC and is a highly responsible member of the City's professional management team. Requirements: ability to be certified by WI Law Enforcement Standards Board; a BS/BA degree or equivalent experience and education combined; and extensive related employment as a Police Officer with a minimum of 4 years senior management experience. Must have excellent management and supervisory skills, knowledge of state of the art law enforcement practices, and outstanding leadership abilities. Must be committed to providing superior citizen service and to moving the Police Department forward in the areas of community relations, technological advances, and proactive policing. Salary range: $61,422 - $80,724 with excellent benefits. Submit job application and resume to PFC, Attn: J. Henry Rathjen, 135 4th Street, Baraboo, WI 53913 by June 22, 2007.