What is Accreditation?

- Accreditation is a progressive and time-proven way of helping institutions evaluate and improve their overall performance.
- Voluntary process in which an agency is evaluated on the existence of prescribed standards and demonstrated compliance with those standards.
- Accreditation is an on-going process and requires the agency to be evaluated on a regular basis.
- Standards are developed from best practices in law enforcement.

WILEAG Accreditation

- The 5th Edition of the WILEAG Standards requires agencies to comply with state-of-the-art standards in four basic areas: policy and procedure, administration, operations, and support services.
- The program consists of 242 standards, containing 602 separate dimensions, that incorporate the best police practices and are specifically tailored to the needs and capabilities of Wisconsin agencies.
- Agencies are evaluated every three years.

The Wisconsin Law Enforcement Accreditation Group (WILEAG) has identified 49 CORE standards from within the 242 5th Edition standards in its ACCREDITATION PROGRAM.

These 49 select standards and the associated agency policies are at the heart of the program. They are focused on:

- Key Federal & State statutory mandates related to law enforcement.
- Requirements arising from case law.
- Inherent issues related to high risk law enforcement operations.
- Sensitive areas involving community relations.

The Core Standards Verification Program is designed to serve smaller Wisconsin law enforcement agencies.

It is available to all agencies upon first time, but only serve cities, villages and towns under 10,000 population and sheriff's offices serving counties with a county population of 30,000 or less upon reaccreditation.

The Core Standards Verification Program serves two purposes for agencies that successfully participate:

- 1. It provides independent verification that the agency is meeting minimum expectations in essential areas of operations and management.
- 2. It serves as a stepping stone to full accreditation for those agencies that aspire to that level of professional excellence.
